<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Event</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2001</td>
<td>UC Regents approve the creation of the School of Management.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 2003 | Robert S. Sullivan is named founding dean.
Roberta and Malin Burnham, Joan and Irwin Jacobs and Carol and William Stensrud make founding gifts to the school.
Jerome S. Katzin Chair in Corporate Governance becomes first named endowed chair.
The Center for Executive Development delivers its first non-degree programs.
The Management School moves into UC 412 – one of the last remaining building from the US Marine Corps’ Camp Matthews which occupied the UCSD site prior to 1964. |
| 2004 | The Management School is named the Rady School of Management in recognition of the leadership support and generous gift by Evelyn and Ernest Rady and the Rady Family Foundation.
Founding faculty are hired.
Dr. J. Robert and Betty Beyster with matching funds from SAIC make founding gift including the integration of the Beyster Institute into the Rady School of Management.
Rady School moves to Pepper Canyon Hall.
First FlexWeekend MBA class matriculates. |
| 2005 | First Full-Time MBA class matriculates. |
| 2006 | Pauline Foster makes founding gift in the name of Stanley and Pauline Foster. |
| 2007 | First FlexEvening MBA class matriculates.
Rady School moves to its permanent facilities at Otterson Hall. Funded almost entirely with donor funds, the building was named Otterson Hall in honor of the late William (Bill) Otterson, co-founder of UCSD CONNECT, in appreciation for his contributions to the San Diego business community and his impact on the region. |
| 2008 | First Concurrent Scripps/Rady Ph.D./MBA student matriculates. |
| 2009 | First Ph.D. class matriculates.
Undergraduate accounting minor begins.
Wells Fargo makes founding gift. |
| 2011 | Undergraduate business minor begins.
Partnership with UCSD Health Sciences launched with first group of Health Sciences faculty matriculating into FlexMBA program in fall 2011.
AACSB Business Accreditation earned. |
The Rady School campus is completed with the opening of Wells Fargo Hall, an 81,000 square foot state-of-the-art facility housing:

- The 295-seat J.R. Beyster Auditorium
- The fifth floor Ernest and Evelyn Rady Sky Pavilion
- The Atkinson Behavioral Research Laboratory
- A dedicated space for MBA students to be used for study and collaboration, including the Vision Student Commons lounge.
- State-of-the-art conference rooms and classrooms provided by the generous support of Jan Tuttleman, Craig Lambert, Arthur Brody and Tony Thornley

Submission of the following graduate degree proposals for approval:

- Master of Finance